Registration

The Ball of Spray (BOS) cash prize entry fee is $225 for everyone who enters. The entry fee is how the purse is funded and to be fair to everyone there will be no complementary entries.

The BOS will be run as a class L. However, if you do not want your score to go to the IWWF ranking list then you will not have to purchase the $25 IWWF license, and you will ski under class E. This will not affect how you will compete for prize money what soever, everyone has the same opportunity to win the top prize as anyone else that is entered.

If you are an overall skier and want to ski the 3 rounds of cash prize, the first 2 preliminary rounds will count for your 2 overall scores. The cost for skiing 2 rounds of 3-event overall and the cash prize Ball of spray is

Class L: $365 ($140 2 Rds T&J + $225 3 Rds Slalom cash prize)

Class C: $305 ($80 2 Rds T&J + $225 3 Rds Slalom cash prize – class E)

The OLR will calculate entry fees correctly for individual class C, E, & L events and the BOS $. However, when you combine BOS with other events it will not calculate correctly. In this case, simply go through the OLR including signing the waiver, stop at payment, and contact the registrar to arrange the correct payment.

BallOfSpray Slalom Cash Prize

Pro and amateur skiers alike will compete for $6,000 in prize money. The event is comprised of 2 rounds of prelims and a final. Every competitor will ski 3 times and every competitor has an opportunity to take home prize money. The 16 skiers with the highest scores will compete for $2,000 in one of two a head-to-head finals and the remaining skiers will compete for an additional $2,000.

in a handicap final.

The Cash Prize two-day event is comprised of 2 rounds of prelims on Saturday and a two-tier final on Sunday, (Head-to-Head and Handicapped). The entry fee is $225

Driving: MasterCraft is sending some of their top drivers, and Sure Path will be in use to ensure the best slalom pulls possible.

	H2H #1	H2H #2	Handicap
1	$1,000	$1,000	$1,000
2	$500	$500	$500
3	$250	$250	$250
4	$125	$125	$125
5	$63	$63	$63
6	$31	$31	$31
7	$16	$16	$16
8	$8	$8	$8

- Every BOS skier will ski a minimum of 3 L/R class rounds
- Close to half the skiers will receive a prize money
- Nine skiers will receive payouts in excess of their entry fee
- Three Grand Prize winners will each receive $1,000

General Notes and Rules

1. To be eligible for the handicap round, a skier must have scores from 3 or more different USAWS tournaments in the previous 24 months
2. Handicaps will be calculated from each skier's USAWS 12-month 3 score average. If a skier does not have 3 scores from the last 12 months a 24-month average will be used
3. BallOfSpray reserves the right to tweak individual handicaps and entry qualifications as needed
4. Non USAWS skiers who can provide documentation of scores from other federations will be admitted at the discretion of the event organizer

All scores will be entered into the Cash Prize Score Book without regard to boat speed. The values for 34 MPH scores will be used for 36 mph and 32 mph skiers.

- Example: 4 @38 off = 100 buoys at 34mph and at 36 mph and at 32 mph

Seeding for the Head-to-Head will be as follows

1. Skiers with the 8 highest scores from prelims will take seeds 1 through 8
2. Skiers with the highest combined scores from rounds 1 and 2 (but not one of the 8 highest scores) will take seeds 9 through 16

All rules are subject to change

Entries are non-refundable unless the event fills. Entry fees will only be refunded when a skier from the waiting list replaces a canceled entry.

First Annual Whitestone Jump Challenge Cash Prize

a.k.a. Balls Astray Ramp Masters Jump Off

Entry Fee $50

Must have a non-zero Rankings List jump score to be eligible to enter. Skiers must enter before first round of jump.

Skier earns points by comparing best jump each round to updated Rankings List Score (RLS).

RLS will be updated after each round by averaging skier's best jump with their Rankings List score, the new average or the original RLS will be the benchmark, whichever is higher.

After updating RLS, skier's score will be best jump in that round minus updated RLS.

For example updated RLS is 100 and skier jumps 101, skier will gain 1 point for that round. Same skier jumps 99, score would be -1.

Best single round score will be used to qualify top four jumpers for the head to head jump off.

Top qualifier will jump off vs. number 4, 2 against 3, in a head to head 2 jump format. 2 vs. 3 battle goes first.

In prelims and finals, each skier will take 2 jumps. Higher ranked skier picks skiing order. Second skier on the water has to beat first skier's score (best jump minus updated RLS). First skier wins ties.

The winners of the preliminary round will go head to head for the title. Losers will be ranked based on points earned vs. updated RLS in preliminary round.

Cash prizes will be awarded to top 3 jumpers. Prize amount will be based on number of entries.

Whitestone Summer Starter

2 Round Slalom, Trick, and Jump Class C & L

Our signature 2 round 3-Event tournament has not changed. Whitestone will offer C or L class in each event. All class L slalom will be held within the BallOfSpray Cash Prize event and the entry fee for that event will apply.

One round Slalom, Trick, and Jump on Saturday and the second round on Sunday.

If you are mixing the Summer Starter events with the BallOfSpray event, don't pay through the OLR but email or text the registrar for fee calculation and an electronic invoice. Registrar: Craig Bryans cbryans@gmail.com 404-954-1675 cell

First time skiers are welcome and will be encouraged under some special Whitestone rules that allow a guaranteed number of passes.

Fees: Class C – 1 event $70, 2 events $80, 3 events $90. Class L - 1 event $120, 2 events $140, 3 events $160. But BOS = $225. You can ski 1 or 2 L / C events and replace the 3rd slalom event with BOS by adding $225. For example, 2 rounds of L trick and Jump = $140 + BOS 3 rounds of slalom cash prize = $225 for a total of $365.

Practice

Practice sets are available to all registered participants.

$10 per set: 4 slalom passes, 3 jumps, 2-4 trick passes or 15 mins, whichever comes first.

Slalom, Trick, and Jump will be held on Lake One.

Slalom only will be pulled on Lake Two for those that are entered in the Ball of Spray. SurePath will be active on both lakes.

Use of your own driver allowable under certain conditions.

Dates/times available: Monday 6/6 to Friday 6/10 from 5pm to 8pm.

Please contact Michelle Walker at michellewalker122316@gmail.com or (734) 652-4942 (text preferred) to schedule your practice sets.

The practice will be sanctioned.

Practice waiver must be signed, and payment received before skiing!

PayPal is the preferred payment for practice and anything else that may come up. The email for PayPal is ws.treasurer@whitestoneskiclub.com Put PRACTICE in the Memo line.
